

Erin Locke

Veterinary Pathologist | DVM DVSc Diplomate ACVP | Ontario

Dr. Locke completed her DVM degree at the Ontario Veterinary College in 1998. She spent 3 years in small animal practice in Mississauga Ontario, before returning to OVC to begin a DVSc program in anatomic pathology. She completed this program and obtained board certification in 2004. She then joined Yager-Best Histovet as a diagnostic pathologist, where she received extensive training in dermatopathology by Dr. Julie Yager. Dr. Locke continued to work as a diagnostic pathologist for Antech Diagnostics, after it acquired Yager-Best Histovet in 2009. Dr. Locke is a member of the International Society for Veterinary Dermatopathology, and currently serves as Chair of the Dermatopathology service at Antech Diagnostics. In her spare time, Dr. Locke enjoys mountain biking, gardening, and spending time with her husband, 2 children, and 5 rats.
