

Gabrielle BROSSEAU

m.v., IPSAV, Dipl. ACVD | Quebec

Gabrielle graduated from the Faculté de médecine vétérinaire of the University of Montreal, Quebec in 2016 and she completed a one-year small animal rotating internship at the same university in 2017. After her internship, Gabrielle completed a 3-year residency in dermatology at the DMV Veterinary Center in Montreal, and became a Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Dermatology in 2020. She currently works as a veterinary dermatologist at DMV-Lachine and DMV-North in Montreal and Blainville, Quebec. Gabrielle has special interest in systemic diseases with skin manifestations, in ectoparasites, and in educating veterinary professionals and pet owners about dermatological conditions. Outside of work she likes jogging, biking, gardening, and crafting.
