

Jangi Bajwa

BVSc & AH, Diplomate ACVD | British Columbia

Dr. Bajwa worked in small animal general practice for 10 years in Burnaby, BC. He has been seeing referral Dermatology cases since 2010 and became board certified with the American College of Veterinary Dermatology in 2014. Currently providing dermatology consultations in the Greater Vancouver area through the Veterinary Dermatology & Ear Referral Medical Clinic, he also travels to Victoria, Winnipeg and Saskatoon providing dermatology services. Dr. Bajwa is also a consultant with the Veterinary Information Network (VIN). Specific dermatology interests include ear disease and treatment, feline allergic disease, and continuing education of veterinary professionals and pet owners. Additional interests include running and watching sporting events.