

Julie LEFRANCOIS

Ontario

Julie Lefrançois completed her veterinary training at the Université de Montréal in 2012 and her dermatology residency at the same institution in 2023. She joined the team at the Centre vétérinaire Rive-Sud in Brossard, Quebec. Between 2012 and 2020, Julie practiced medicine and general surgery. Her special interests in dermatology are otology and the management of complicated infections. She is convinced that dermatology is the most interesting medical specialty. In her spare time, Julie enjoys hiking, spending time with friends and family, and is a huge Star Wars fan. She lives with her two cats (Mademoiselle and Jean-Claude) and her partner Adam.
