

Jennie Tait | AHT, RVT, Charter Member VTS (Dermatology) | Ontario

Jennie Tait is an experienced veterinary technician who graduated in 1986, worked in private practice for 3 years, started working at the Ontario Veterinary College in 1989, and became a Registered Veterinary Technician at the first seating of the registration exam. Over 24 years at OVC saw her working in Large Animal Surgery, teaching in Surgical Exercises, as well as Ophthalmology, and finally settling in as the dermatology service technician, assisting with the instruction of final year students, in 2000. When the vet college decided to close down the dermatology service at OVC, Jennie was able to retire, but this only lasted a few months, when she decided to work once again with Dr. Yu and Dr. Pye at Yu of Guelph Veterinary Dermatology, in the Guelph Veterinary Specialty Hospital. She is a charter member of the Veterinary Technician Specialists for Dermatology, is an accomplished speaker in her field, and is currently the only VTS (Dermatology) in Canada. Jennie currently serves as secretary for the Academy of Dermatology Veterinary Technicians, as well as being on the Executive Committee for the Canadian Academy of Veterinary Dermatology. Jennie shares her life with her husband, their two children and a shepherd cross named Shenzi. She loves what she does for a living, sees the difference it makes in her patients' lives, and is excited to be able to share her knowledge with you.
