

Stephen Waisglass | DVM, Diplomate ACVD | Ontario

Dr. Stephen Waisglass is a Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Dermatology (ACVD) and is the staff dermatologist at the Veterinary Emergency Clinic and Referral Hospital of Toronto (VEC) and the 404 Veterinary Emergency and Referral Hospital in Newmarket. He is a graduate of the Ontario Veterinary College and obtained a Certificate in Small Animal Dermatology from the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons in the UK. He subsequently did his ACVD dermatology residency at the OVC. Dr. Waisglass is very involved with continuing education at all levels. He is an Adjunct Professor at the OVC, and teaches the dermatology course to the vet students there. He was an educator for OVC's 2 ACVD residents and was the mentor and educator for Dr. Karri Beck, who went on to quickly pass her dermatology boards and join their private practice. Dr. Waisglass is a former member of the education committee of the ACVD and a member of the executive committee for the Canadian Academy of Veterinary Dermatology (CAVD). He is an advising dermatology consultant for veterinarians on the Veterinary Information Network (VIN) internet site and lectures internationally in the field, with speaking engagements in Europe and from coast to coast in North America. Dr. Waisglass has published numerous journal and textbook articles on various topics in veterinary dermatology. When not working, he enjoys skiing, tennis and spending time with his wife, children and their Golden Retriever, Penny, who is a certified St. John's ambulance therapy dog.
