

Tyler Udenberg | DVM, Diplomate ACVD | British Columbia and Alberta

Dr. Udenberg is originally from Vernon, BC. In 2009, he received his veterinary degree from the Western College of Veterinary Medicine in Saskatoon, SK. After that he completed a rotating internship and dermatology internship at Tufts University in Boston, Massachusetts. He subsequently completed a residency program with the Animal Dermatology Clinic in Southern California and became a Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Dermatology in 2014. His special interests include allergy management and autoimmune diseases.

He currently practices in Vancouver, Victoria, Nanaimo and St. Albert, AB.